The Chilhowean

1929

PUBLISHED BY THE

JUNIOR CLASS

of

MARYVILLE COLLEGE

Dedication

To her who has displayed intense interest in the young people who are attending the College, whose tales of woe she oftentimes receives and always helps and counsels them in their difficulties; and, therefore---To her whose place is first in the hearts of her students, this book of the Highlanders is most affectionately dedicated.

MARY McDERMID MINTON

Minton Meditations

"A strong man is a man with a strong temper under stronger control."

"Men are like street cars, there's one along every fifteen minutes."

"The self-made man worships his creator."

Foreword

"For the structure that we raise
Time is with materials filled;
Our Todays and Yesterdays
Are the blocks with which we build."

IN the 1929 Chilhowean we have tried to picture life on College Hill as it really is. When many years have passed and the structure which you are raising nears completion, you may look back upon Today, which will then be Yesterday, and recall the days of work and pleasure you have spent as a student here, under the shadow of the cedars---If this record shall serve to preserve such memories for you, then our purpose will have been accomplished.

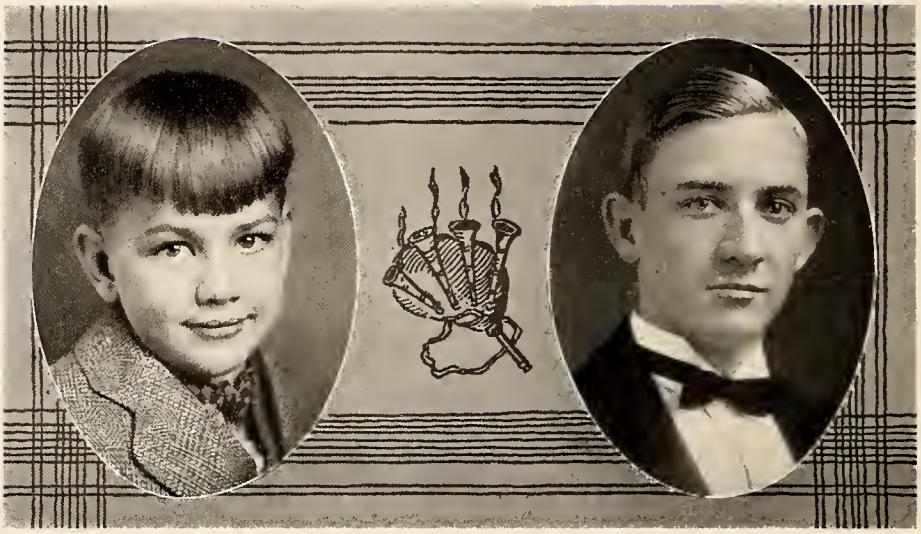
Seniors

A Senior Scottie telling the world that He Has Graduated

Chas. Pilkey



HOWLAND HUSSEY

MARYVILLE, TENNESSEE

This intelligent looking young man we are proud to claim as our Class Mascot. He is the son of one of our dearly loved professors, Dr. Hussey, and we are sure that some day the son will fill as important a place in the world as his father. For Howland is very brilliant and when he begins his college life this Old Hill will surely wake up and stare. Of course he's going to choose Maryville as his Alma Mater, and the Class of '29 will follow his triumphs with proud and loving eyes.

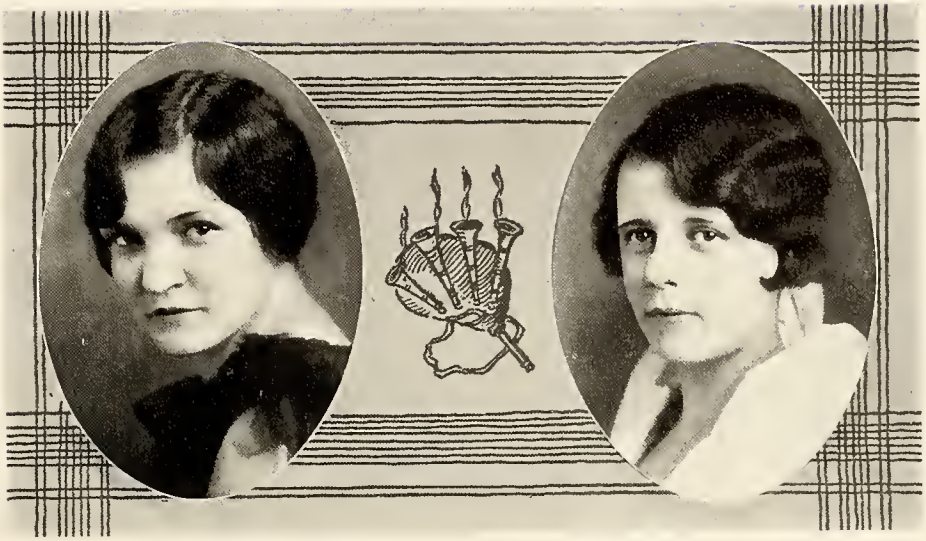
FLORIAN GOSS HOPKINS, PRESIDENT

HAZARD, KENTUCKY

ATHENIAN

When anyone asks "who is president of—," we always answer "Florian," without waiting to hear the rest of the question. As president of Y. M. he has piloted it very well indeed through the year 1928-29. But it is as President of our class that we always think of him. With such an able leader could we fail to do our best to make our class one of the "bigger and better" variety?

Y. M. C. A. Cabinet (3), President (4); East Tennessee Oratorical League President (4); Class President (4); Kentucky Club (1, 2, 3, 4), President (4); Biology Assistant (2, 3, 4); Chilhowean Staff (3); Athenian Treasurer (3); Pi Kappa Delta (1, 2, 3, 4).



ARTA TEXAS WATKINS, Vice-President
Loudon, Tennessee
BAINONIAN

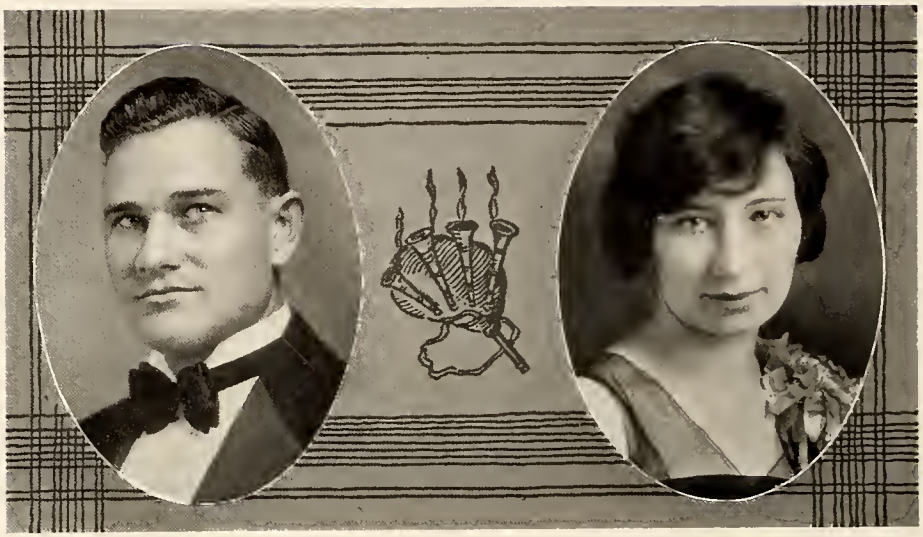
Our four years' association with "Pud" has convinced us that there is practically nothing she cannot do, whether it be along athletic lines, working on committees, cheering us with her songs, or just simply keeping things going. For "Pud" is one of those fortunate people who are always the life of the party.

Intercollegiate Debate (1); Pi Kappa Delta (1, 2, 3, 4); Student Council (3, 4); Vesper Choir (3, 4); Spanish Club (3, 4); Bainonian Treasurer (4); Class Vice-President (4); Girls' Basketball Squad (1, 2), Varsity Squad (3); Girls' Athletics, 300 points (3); Athletic Board of Control (4).

VIRGINIA RUTH STING, Secretary
Columbus, Ohio
THETA EPSILON

Virginia is always harping on something. But since her harping always results in such beautiful music we forgive her. She is artistic in more ways than one, but on knowing her better, we are glad to find that she has none of the much-talked-of artistic temperament. For Virginia does not lose her head in a moment of excitement, but is quite capable of calmly taking hold of things and managing affairs ably. We discovered her executive ability as Vice-President of the Class last year.

Ohio State University (1); Class Vice-President (3); Theta Epsilon Program Secretary (2), Critic (4); Theta Epsilon Mid-Winter Stage Manager (4); Ohio Club (2, 3, 4), Treasurer (3), Vice-President (4); Spanish Club (3, 4); President French Club (4); Violin Ensemble (2, 3, 4); Y. W. C. A. Social Chairman (4); Blue Ridge Delegate (3).



ALBERT LEE TULL, Treasurer
Baltimore, Maryland
ALPHA SIGMA

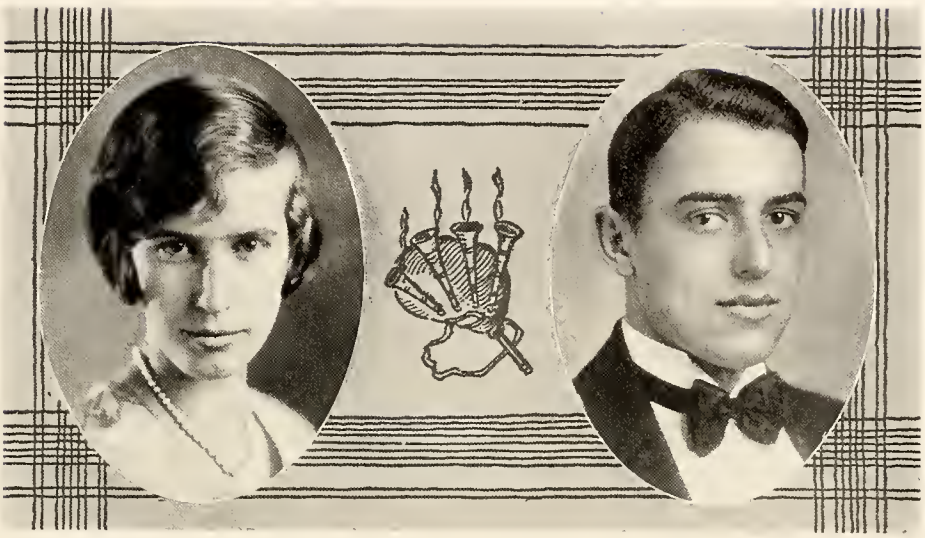
We showed our confidence and trust in Al by making him Treasurer of our Class this year. And that's just the kind of a fellow Al is—trustworthy and likeable. We wonder if anybody on the Hill has more friends than he. Al has been instrumental in making many of the plays presented here in the last four years a success, for his abilities as stage manager are well known. Maryville needs more men with his brains and talents.

Alpha Sigma Vice-President (4), President (4), Treasurer (3); Alpha Sigma Mid-Winter (2, 3, 4); Maryville College Players (3); Theta Alpha Phi (3, 4), Treasurer (4); Y. M. C. A. Cabinet (3), Secretary (4); Ministerial Association (1, 2, 3, 4), President (2, 3); Friendship Council (2); Writers' Work Shop (4); Chairman Junior-Senior Banquet Committee (3); Class Treasurer (4).

MARGARET NEWTON LOWRANCE, Editor
Lewisburg, Tennessee
BAINONIAN

Midget is the living proof that one can be a genius and at the same time be most delightfully human. She has been an honor student all four years; moreover, she is one of America's young authoresses. With all this she has a certain wit and whimsicality that appeals to us all. If you don't know her well, you have missed a treat.

Class Editor (4); Bainonian Program Secretary (3); Writers' Work Shop (3, 4); Middle Tennessee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); Art Club (1); Psychology Assistant (4).



ADA BELLE CAMPBELL

CONCORD, TENNESSEE

BAINONIAN

Ada Belle is one of those people who are constantly working at something. Being stage manager means working, and with the College Players she has demonstrated her ability to manage and, at the same time, carry a role. We know she will manage well whatever she undertakes. We are with you, Ada Belle.

Home Economics Club (3, 4), President (4); Theta Alpha Phi (4); Maryville College Players (3, 4); Bainonian Mid-Winter (4); Graduate in Expression (4).

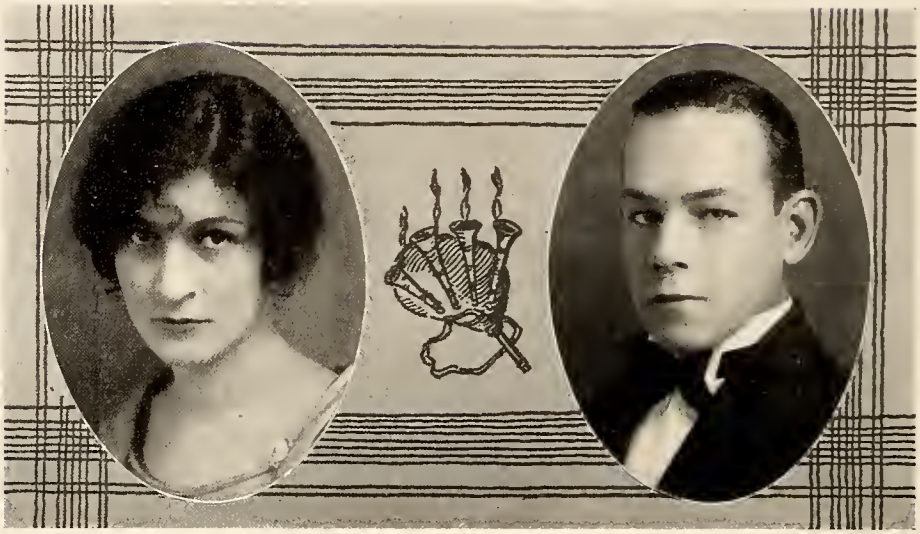
WALTER WAYNE HEADRICK

CHATTANOOGA, TENNESSEE

ATHENIAN

Walter is one of those much-talked of Chemistry assistants. Formulas and problems have no terrors for him. He doesn't have a one-track mind either, for he is a good all-round student and excels in athletics besides. He is the kind of fellow that helps make our track team famous. Success is sure to await you, Walt.

Athenian Vice-President (4); Athenian Mid-Winter (4); Bainonian Mid-Winter (4), Ministerial Association (1, 2, 3, 4), Editor (2), Vice-President (3), President (4); Friendship Council (1, 2, 3); Student Volunteers (4); Chemistry Club (2, 3, 4); Program Secretary (3), Treasurer (4); Chemistry Assistant (3); Pre-Medical Club (2, 3, 4); Chattanooga Club (1, 2, 3, 4), President (3); Football Squad (1, 2, 3, 4); "M" Club (4); Track Team (2, 3, 4).



MILDRED TAYLOR

CHATTANOOGA, TENNESSEE

BAINONIAN

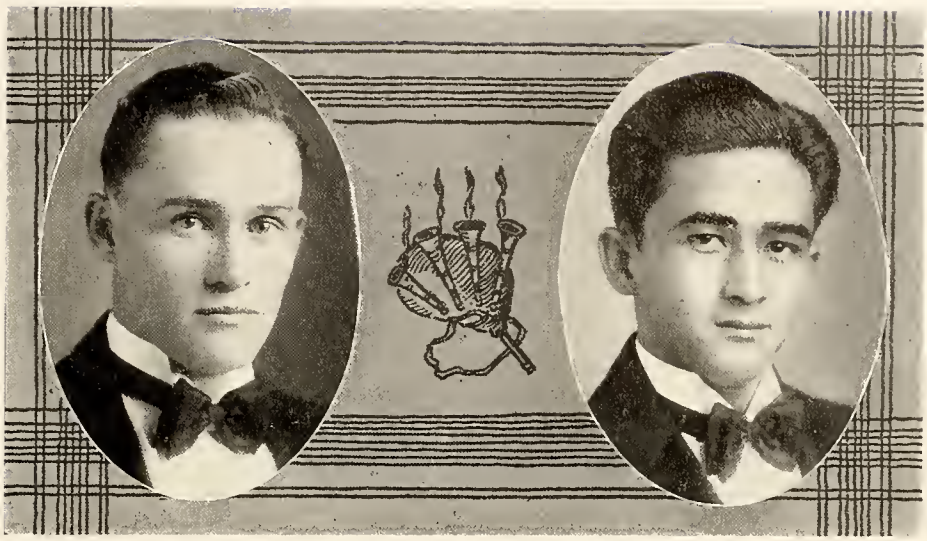
Although we have an abundance of Taylors in the class we would not want to lose any of them, and Mildred is no exception to the rule. Good-looking, charming, and friendly, it is no wonder she is so well liked. She is a loyal Bainonian and has worked hard to make it a go. We shall miss her to take the "gentlemen parts" on the program.

Spanish Club (3, 4), Vice-President (4); Chattanooga Club (2, 3, 4), President (4); Swimming Team (3); Class Soccer (3); Class Volleyball (3); Class Baseball (3); Bainonian Mid-Winter (3, 4).

LUKE IRDEL FOSTER

HUNTSVILLE, TENNESSEE

Luke has a quiet and unassuming nature, but we must remember that still waters run deep. He goes out for sciences, and our respect for him increases accordingly. He will make a doctor some day, and a good one, too. Our best wishes go with you for a successful career, Luke.



JAMES HAYES WILLIAMS

MOUNT HOPE, ALABAMA

ATHENIAN

For the last three years Hayes has been one of Maryville's outstanding athletes. If he could be induced to distribute the various "M's" he has won among the members of the fair sex, there would be almost enough to go around. Not only is he a good athlete, but he is also an excellent student; in fact, he is one of those often-talked-of, but rarely seen, all-round men. So life is sure to be a series of successes for him.

Athenian Recording Secretary (4), President (4); Pi Upsilon (3, 4), Vice-President (4); Chemistry Club (3); Pre-Medical Club (2, 3, 4), Treasurer (4); Associate Editor Chilhowean (3); Alabama Club (2, 3, 4); Football Squad (2), Varsity Squad (3, 4); Baseball Squad (2), Varsity Squad (3); Varsity Track Team (2, 3, 4); "M" Club (2, 3, 4); Vice-President Athletic Board of Control (4).

JAMES ALBERT COX

SHARPS CHAPEL, TENNESSEE

ATHENIAN

We always depend on Jimmy to start the day off right for us by leading the procession from Chapel every morning—and he's always there with bright and smiling countenance. Combine energy with ability, hard work with a cheerful disposition and we have a fair picture of Jimmy. We predict a very successful future for him.

Chilhowean Staff (3); Knoxville Club (2, 3, 4), President (3), Secretary-Treasurer (4).

SELMA BAIRD

VERNON, TEXAS

BAINONIAN

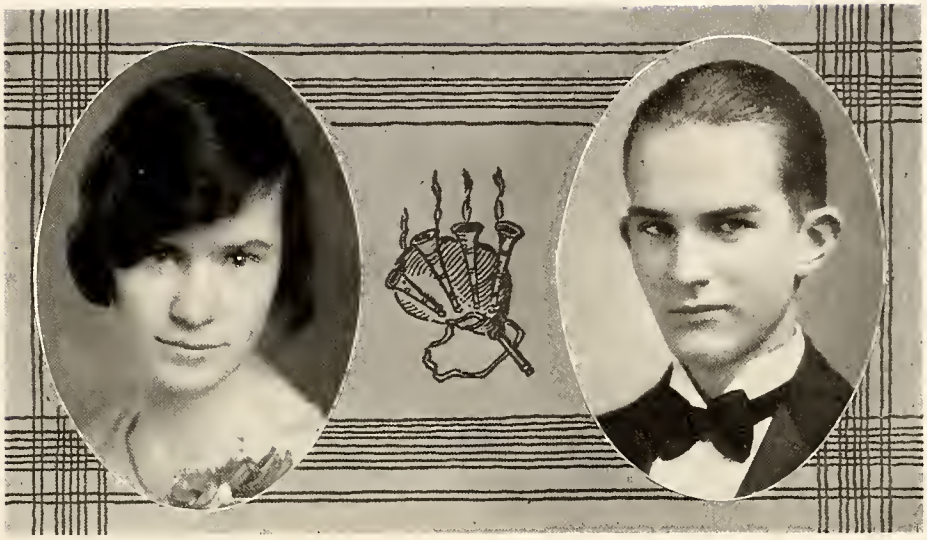
Selma has a heart as big as the State she hails from. We don't know many people from way down in Texas, but if loyal workers, cheerful dispositions, good common sense, and capability are characteristic products of that State, let us hope they run an excursion up to Maryville every fall.

Wichita Junior College (1); Y. W. C. A Store Manager (3, 4); Nu Gamma Sigma Leader (4); Vesper Choir (4); Bainonian Publicity Chairman (4); President Texarkoma Club (4).

KATE BARTON WALKER

MARYVILLE, TENNESSEE

Although Kate Barton has missed the joys of dormitory life—and also many of its tribulations—she has had the added pleasure of staying at home while she finished her college course. And she has managed to take part in a surprisingly large number of campus activities also. She is a Smith-Hughes girl and that means she is not afraid of hard work in large quantities.



ANNA ELIZABETH CAMPBELL

CONCORD, TENNESSEE

BAINONIAN

With the combination of red hair and common sense that this young lady possesses who wouldn't be able to do great things? We always seem to expect more of people with red hair and we feel sure that Elizabeth will not disappoint us. She is a splendid home economics student and we agree that

"We may live without wealth; we may live without books,
But civilized man cannot live without cooks!"

Home Economics Club (3, 4); Knoxville Club (1, 2, 3); Girls' Athletics, 300 points (3).

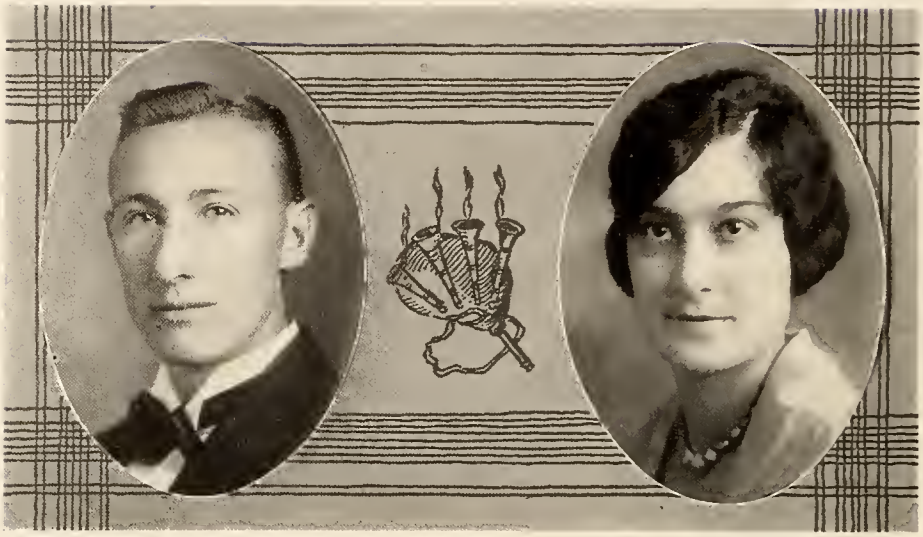
ROBERT SLOAN WELSH

TULLAHOMA, TENNESSEE

ATHENIAN

To Maryville College in general, Bob is known as the Chemistry and Math shark. At almost any hour of the day he can be found hanging out at Science Hall, but to those who know Bob best, he is more than a mere mixer of potions and a juggler of numbers. Although he is usually rather quiet, he is well worth talking to—and a friend worth having.

Chemistry Club (2, 3, 4), Treasurer (3); Chemistry Assistant (2, 3); P. K. Club (2, 3, 4); Middle Tennessee Club (1, 2, 3, 4).



OTIS RAY PETERSON

DAY BOOK, NORTH CAROLINA

ATHENIAN

Pete is one of our fast men—on the cinder-path of course. We sit and gaze in awe as he dashes past, and wonder how he does it. Perhaps he borrows Mercury's winged sandals. Possibly the real secret lies in the fact of his unfailing good humor and cheeriness. We have never seen him when he looked blue for he's always grinnin'.

North Carolina Club (1, 2, 3, 4), President (4), Editor (3); Law Club (3, 4), Editor (4); Athenian Recording Secretary (3), Editor (4); Varsity "M" Club (3, 4); Varsity Track (2, 3, 4); Football (1, 2, 3); Class Basketball (3, 4).

ANNA ELIZABETH BROOKS

WASHINGTON, D. C.

BAINONIAN

Betty has demonstrated her unusual mental ability by doing the work that the rest of us took four years to accomplish, in three and a half years. And even then she has more quality credits than most of us can boast of. She is evidently cut out to fill some important place in this world, and we would not be surprised to hear one day that she has moved from her present Washington residence to the White House—for the woman President is sure to come, sooner or later. Her charming personality will make her welcome wherever she goes.

Nu Gamma Sigma Leader (2); Y. W. C. A. Cabinet (3); Bainonian Secretary (4).

WILLIAM ROGER RUSK

ATLANTA, GEORGIA

ATHENIAN

Roger is the fellow that sells us stamps and Theism books and Maryville pennants. What would we do without so capable a manager of the Book Store? Roger is also a French shark and speaks the language with a genuine Parisian accent, as those of us who saw the play put on by the French department know. He will also be remembered for his excellent work in other dramatic productions on the Hill.

Glee Singers (1, 2, 4); Vesper Choir (1, 2, 3, 4); Georgia Club (1, 2, 3, 4). President (3); Student Council (2); Y. M. C. A. Cabinet (3); Theta Alpha Phi (4); Athenian Mid-Winter (3), Stage Manager (4); Bainonian Mid-Winter (4); Operetta (1); Student Volunteers (2, 3, 4); State Secretary (4).

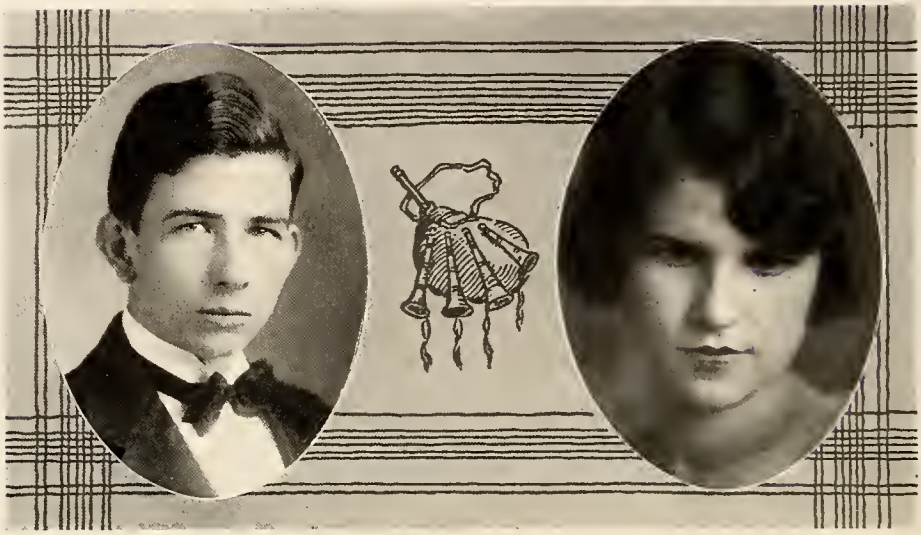
RUTH ELIZABETH BLAKE

KNOXVILLE, TENNESSEE

BAINONIAN

The Freshmen appreciate Ruth because she has done so much to help them feel at home, and through her, many of them have been introduced to the Maryville Spirit. The Sophs and Juniors appreciate her because she is such a true friend to all of them and has helped them over many rough places. But the Seniors appreciate and love her best of all because four years' association with her has proved her a girl of sterling qualities and a lovable disposition. Friendliness, helpfulness, and feminine charm all combine to make her one who will certainly be long remembered by her friends.

Vesper Choir (2, 3, 4); Knoxville Club (1, 2, 3, 4); Y. W. C. A. Prayer Meeting Committee (2, 3); Y. W. C. A. Cabinet (4); Nu Gamma Sigma Leader (2); Student Volunteers (2, 3, 4), Secretary-Treasurer (4).



JACK CHILTON COTTON

NEW WATERFORD, OHIO

ATHENIAN

Is there anything this versatile young man will not attempt? And is there anything he attempts that he does not successfully accomplish? From walking a tight rope to editing the Highland Echo, Jack is the man for the job. And he writes poetry, too. He has piloted the Glee Club through a very successful season and he will be missed in that capacity as well as in many others.

Highland Echo Feature Editor (3), Editor-in-Chief (4); Chilhowean Staff (3); Maryville College Glee Singers (1, 2, 3, 4), President and Director (4); Varsity Quartet (3, 4); Vesper Choir (3, 4); Student Council (3, 4); Athenian Mid-Winter (2, 3); Bainonian Mid-Winter (4); Writers' Work Shop (3); Physics Assistant (2, 3, 4); President Chemistry Club (3).

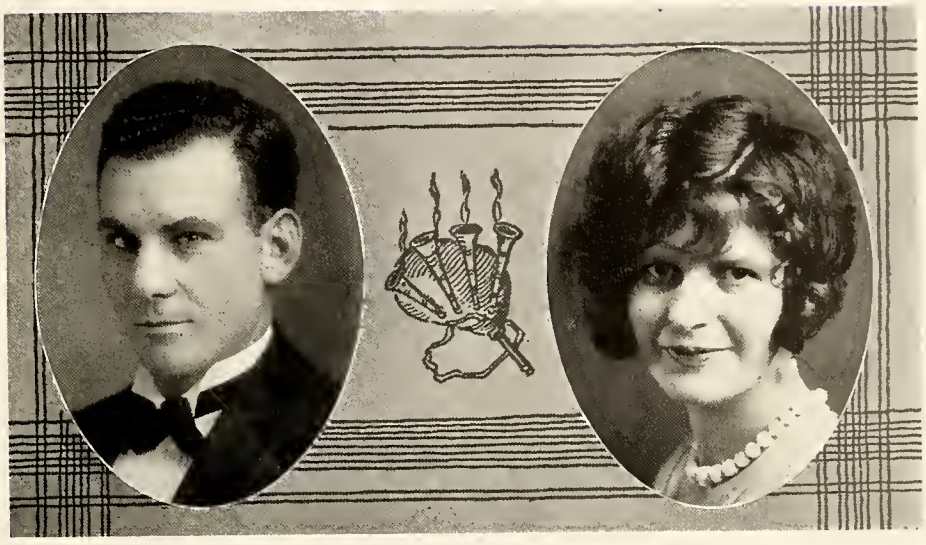
LOIS MILES

VONORE, TENNESSEE

BAINONIAN

Miles of Smiles, that's Lois. We have admired her charming personality since we first came to know her. A sunny disposition like hers will surely go a long, long way. We wish for her an abundance of joy and happiness wherever she goes.

Middle Tennessee Club (1, 2, 3); P. K. Club (2, 3, 4); Vesper Choir (2, 3, 4); Bainonian Secretary (3), President (4).



ELBERT WALDEMAR THOMPSON

NEENAH, WISCONSIN

ATHENIAN

He is a prince of a fellow, quiet, unassuming, always ready to help somebody, a deep thinker, that's Tommy. If, upon speaking to him he tells you, "That reminds me," look out for something rich from his keen wit. To appreciate him you must know him. May the greatest success be yours, is our wish for you, Tommy.

Carroll College (1, 2); Student Volunteer Band (3, 4, 5), President (4); Student Council President (4); Ministerial Association (3, 4, 5).

MARY MILDRED COHRON

CARROLLTON, MISSISSIPPI

BAINONIAN

Although Mary spent her first two years at Chickasaw College and came to us as a Junior, she has entered heartily into all the departments of life on College Hill. She engages in all the more popular sports, such as mountain hiking and moonshining, but she manages to devote enough time to classes to make a good record in all of them.

Chickasaw College (1, 2); Mississippi Club (3, 4).

BETTY JANE SHARP

MIAMI, FLORIDA

BAINONIAN

Shall we discuss Betty Jane as the lovely young heroine of Romeo and Juliet? Or in some other of the roles in which she has appeared on the Maryvillian stage? Or as the capable and practical stage manager? Or as the eloquent and convincing debater? Or as a literary genius? For she is all of these things. But it is when she is not being any of these things, but her own likeable, friendly self, that we like her best. We admire her capabilities; we envy her talents; but we love her for herself.

Y. W. C. A. Cabinet (2, 3, 4); Program Secretary (2); Conference Chairman (3); Lyceum Manager (4); Vice-President Student Council (2); Highland Echo Staff (3); Chilhowean Staff (3); Athenian Mid-Winter (2, 3, 4); Bainonian Program Secretary (4); Mid-Winter Chairman (4); Varsity Debate (3, 4); Pi Kappa Delta Secretary (4), Graduate in Expression (3); Maryville College Players (3); Writers' Work Shop (3, 4); Florida Club (1, 2, 3, 4), Editor (3); Spanish Club (3, 4), Editor (4).

MABEL ELLEN BLACKBURN

DANDRIDGE, TENNESSEE

BAINONIAN

Mabel is serving her turn at the Practice House this year and we have heard that she can do wonders with the needle as well as the frying pan. The good wishes of the Class go with her, whether she intends to instruct others in the fine art of home-making or to put her talents to a more practical use. She has made many deep and lasting friendships on the Hill and she is a friend indeed for she is a friend in need.

Jefferson County Club (1, 2, 3, 4); Home Economics Club (3, 4), Vice-President (4).

GEORGE WASHINGTON TAYLOR

OLIVER SPRINGS, TENNESSEE

ALPHA SIGMA

George's rosy cheeks and childishly engaging grin have earned for him the title of "Youth." Whether or not he represents Flaming Youth we cannot say. But, youthful or not, he certainly made an enviable record on the football field. We hate to think that he has played his last game for the Orange and Garnet, for the team will miss him sorely next year.

Football Squad (1); Varsity Football (2, 3, 4); Varsity Baseball (1, 2, 3); Class Baseball (3, 4); Class Basketball (1, 2, 3, 4); "M" Club (2, 3, 4), Secretary-Treasurer (3).

MARY MELVINA WYNN

MARYVILLE, TENNESSEE

THETA EPSILON

Mary, the merry spirit of Maryville, is the alliterative title we would like to bestow on this member of our class for who ever saw Mary without her smile? Our acquaintance with her has made us wish that she lived on the Hill so that those of us who do might know her better. Mary, we wish you the best o' luck.

Home Economics Club (2, 3, 4).

ALICE AMELIA PRATT

MACON, GEORGIA

THETA EPSILON

"We doubt not that for one so true
There must be a noble work to do."

Alice is true to the ideals of Maryville and of the Senior Class. She might be said to be idealistic if she did not make such practical use of her ideals. Like the well-known Alice in Wonderland she is constantly on the lookout for somebody to help, but, unlike that Alice, she does not have to go to fairyland to find a use for her talents.

Georgia Club (1, 2, 3, 4); Art Club Treasurer (1); Home Economics Club (3, 4); Home Economics Assistant (4).

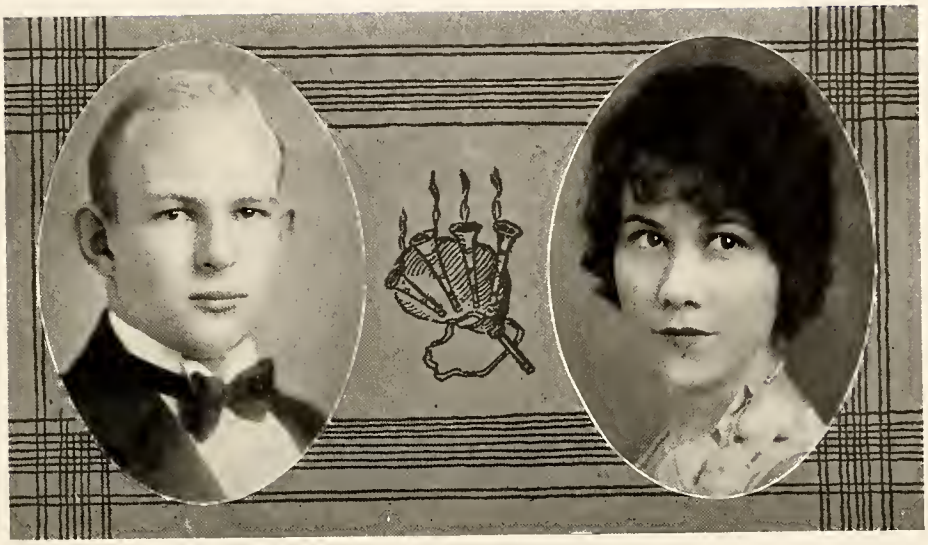
WILLIAM JOSEPH GRAYSON

MARYVILLE, TENNESSEE

ALPHA SIGMA

Bill is the tall, rosy-cheeked lad that plays the bass horn in our college band. He is one of the most loyal members of our class and has stood by us through thick and thin for four years. He is not afraid of hard work and we feel sure that he will make a success of whatever he chooses to do.

College Band (2, 3, 4); College Orchestra (2, 3, 4); Assistant Engineer (3, 4).



HARRY INGRAM FELL

West Chester, Pennsylvania

ATHENIAN

"Ing" must think lots of Maryville for he has been coming from way up in Pennsylvania for four years to be a member of our class; and we know Maryville thinks a lot of "Ing" for he is always ready and willing to help out in any way he can—and he can do many things.

Ministerial Association (1, 2, 3, 4), Secretary and Treasurer (2); Athenian Editor (2); Bainonian Mid-Winter (4); Y. M. C. A. Cabinet (3), Treasurer (4); Class Basketball (4); Class Baseball (2, 3, 4).

MARY CHRISTINE BENN

St. Petersburg, Florida

BAINONIAN

When we hear a Freshman asking who that cute girl with the black curly hair is, we know at once he is talking about Mary Chris. She is one of the most popular girls on the Hill and has made a success of everything she has undertaken. She proved her executive ability as Bainonian President, and we all know her as the song-bird of Maryville.

Y. W. C. A. Cabinet (2, 3, 4); Music Chairman (4); Freshman May Day Attendant (1); Glee Club Sponsor (2); Vesper Choir (1, 2, 3, 4); Bainonian President (4); Bainonian Mid-Winter (4); Nu Gamma Sigma Leader (2); Florida Club (1, 2, 3, 4), Secretary-Treasurer (2), President (3).

MIRIAM HOLLAND

HOLLAND, GEORGIA

THETA EPSILON

Although Miriam has been with us only two years she has won our hearts by her bright smile and friendly disposition. She is rather quiet but her achievements speak for her. And she is a real Georgia Peach, too. That is why so many pairs of eyes follow her across the campus.

Georgia State Teachers' College (1, 2); Georgia Club (3, 4); Spanish Club (4).

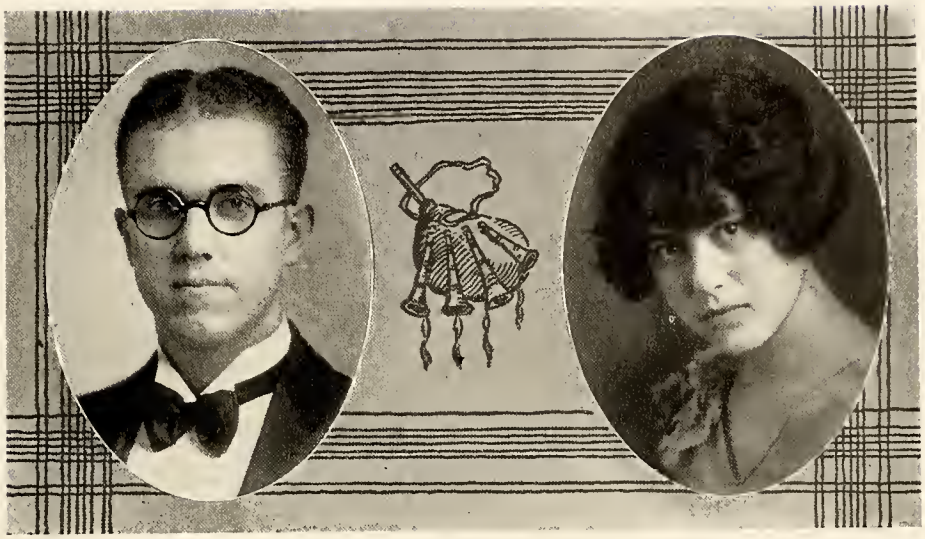
ROBERT WEBSTER CROSBY

DAYTON, OHIO

ATHENIAN

Bob is characterized by a certain earnestness combined with an aptitude for fun-making. He is one of our good students and one of the most prominent speakers in Athenian society meetings. He intends to be a minister some day, and we know he will be a splendid one. We are wishing you all the success in the world, Bob. You deserve it.

Ohio Club (1, 2, 3); Ministerial Association (1, 2, 3).



EARL LEE WILKINSON, JR.
MARYVILLE, TENNESSEE
ATHENIAN

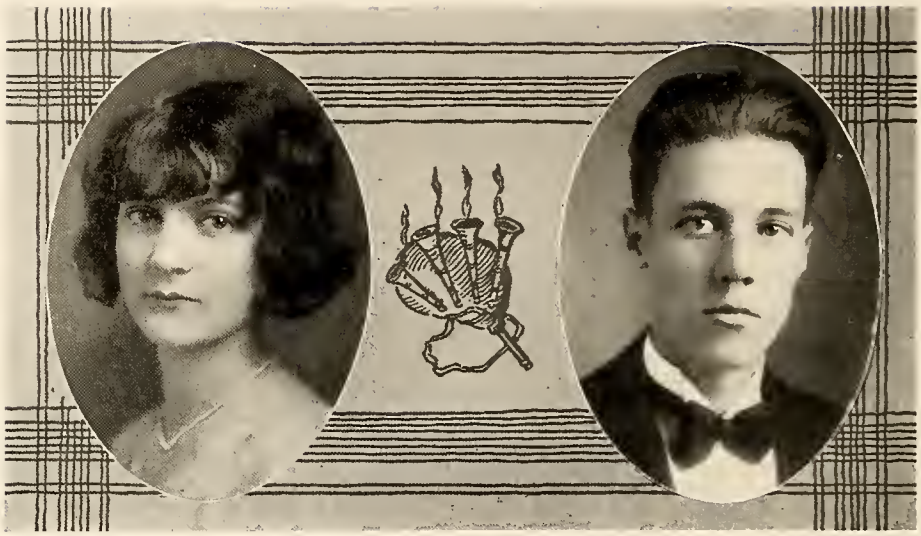
Sometimes we wonder what the joke is, for "Squirley" always seems to be laughing at something and in a good humor even on the gloomiest of days and in the dullest of classes. We envy his cheerful outlook on life. Perhaps the secret of his good humor is his ability to sleep during class. Oh, excuse us, we didn't mean to tell that, for Earl has a very likeable disposition and can always be sure of a host of friends.

Law Club (3); French Club (4).

DOROTHY GRACE GAMBLE
MARYVILLE, TENNESSEE
BAINONIAN

If you must gamble, Grace is always a safe bet. She is one of the town girls who has entered heart and soul into life on the Hill. We have learned that if we want anything done satisfactorily all we have to do is call on Grace, for she not only possesses many talents, but is very generous with them.

Nu Gamma Sigma Leader (2); Highland Echo Staff (3); Writers' Work Shop (4).



JENNYE FANCHER SMARTT

SMARTT, TENNESSEE

THETA EPSILON

Perhaps there is something in names after all. At least Fancher's seems to fit her unusually well; and we are inclined to believe that at least a part of her brain must be in her fingers, else how could she play so beautifully? For four years she has charmed Maryville audiences with her music. As President of Y. W. C. A. she has been a help and an inspiration to new girls and to old ones alike, and she is leaving a place that will be hard to fill.

EDWARD AHMUTY DRISCOLL

DUNEDIN, FLORIDA

ATHENIAN

Ed blew in from Sunny Florida three years ago. His big ready smile reflects the sunshine of that state. Ed speaks a good word for everyone, and always has a merry greeting for them, too. We don't know what he plans to do after leaving Maryville, but we predict great things for him for he has a "strong line." Ed has displayed much talent as an actor as well as cheer leader for the three years he has graced this campus.

RICHARD EDWARD SPAINHOUR

MORGANTON, NORTH CAROLINA

ALPHA SIGMA

If Dick keeps up the good work he will some day be a second Demosthenes, Euclid, or Descarte. Professor Knapp will surely miss him next year, because Dick was a shining star in more than one of his classes. Our respect for one who is brilliant in Math is without limits.

DORIS FAY HUNTER

PINCKNEYVILLE, ILLINOIS

BAINONIAN

Fay is one of the smallest members of our class but she possesses the native ability to accomplish great things. She is characterized by her bright, happy laugh, but at times we have noticed a wee bit of sadness and a far-away look in her eyes. Why? Oh, that's simple when you realize that she has joined the "college widows" this year.

McKendree College (1); Three I Club (2, 3, 4), Editor (4); Spanish Club (3).

EMMA GRACE HOWARD

MARYVILLE, TENNESSEE

Emma Grace is a native of Maryville. Perhaps she may live here in the shadow of her Alma Mater the remainder of her days, but whether she stays here, or in Paris or Venice, we know that her life will be a happy one, for one who has such a kind and generous heart will always have many friends.

MARY HELEN FITZGERALD

BILTMORE, NORTH CAROLINA

BAINONIAN

If you want to know anything about cooking, sewing, or housekeeping, just ask Mary, for she is one of our best Home Ec students. And in the activities of class and college she can always be counted on to do her part and more. We are thankful for dependable people like Mary.

NORMAN SANKEY VAUGHAN

HEFLIN, ALABAMA

ALPHA SIGMA

"Sankey," as he is known on the campus, is one of the few people whom everyone just naturally likes. Who wouldn't? He has a great many admirers, especially among the fair sex. He is one of our Glee Club members, and has ably assisted in entertaining us many times. Here's wishing you the best o' luck, Sankey.

ELIZA JANE SHERRILL

CHATTANOOGA, TENNESSEE

THETA EPSILON

Jane reminds us of the girls we used to see on an old-fashioned Valentine—the kind that had lots of paper lace and pink hearts around them. She has such a gay, lovable personality that once we know her, we want to remain friends forever. And so, although she is quiet at times, she will be genuinely missed next year.

WALTER MILES WILLIAMS

MARYVILLE, TENNESSEE

ATHENIAN

We always feel cheated when a member of our Class lives out in town, for we never know these students as well as the ones on the Hill. However, Walter has taken part in all our school and class activities and is a very familiar figure on the campus. He is a fine sport, and a friend well worth knowing. Luck to you, Walter.

French Club (4).

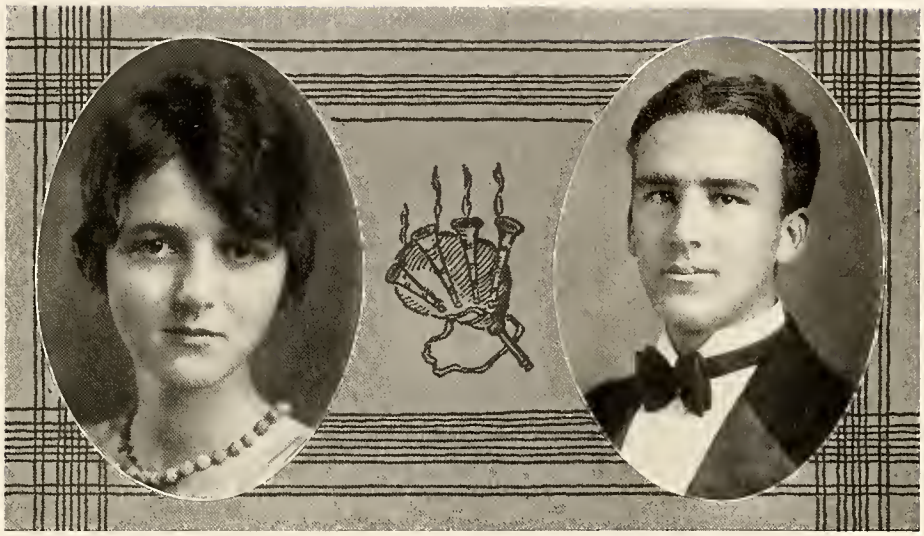
INEZ ELIZABETH BURNS

MARYVILLE, TENNESSEE

BAINONIAN

Inez, as a town girl, enjoys the great privilege of being able to stay at home and go to school at the same time. She didn't join us until her Junior year, having taught for a time, but she has proved a valuable addition to our class. Although she is rather quiet at times, we find that underneath this there is a determination and a sense of humor which will be instrumental in making her a success in her chosen profession—teaching.

Chemistry Essay Prize (1).



RUTH WEESE

ATHENS, TENNESSEE

THETA EPSILON

Ruth is another of our number who discovered Maryville only after she had spent her first two years of college work elsewhere. She has a rare combination of sweetness and capability that have endeared her to the hearts of students and faculty alike. She has penetrated the inner secrets of that mysterious place known to us by the indefinite name of "the office," and most any day can be seen playing with infinite skill on her favorite instrument, the typewriter. If she chooses to continue her business career we are sure she will be very successful.

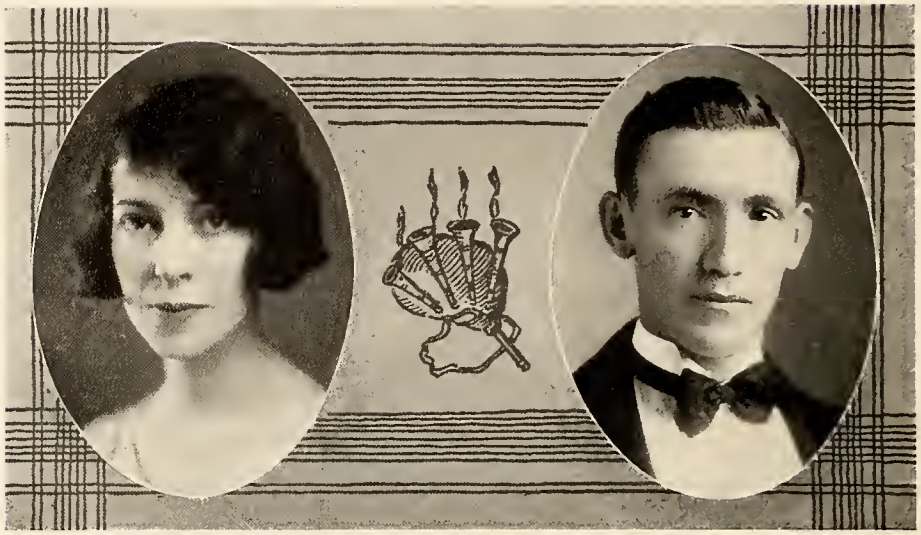
FRED ALLEN DIMLER

MARYVILLE, TENNESSEE

ALPHA SIGMA

"Earth! You seem to look for something at my hands.
Say, old top-knot, what do you want?"

Fred is light-heartedly asking the world this question as he unhesitatingly faces the roads that open out before him. And after four years' acquaintance with him we know that Fred will always be the same cheerful, genial personality, on good terms with the world in general.



MARY SUE CARSON

TELFORD, TENNESSEE

BAINONIAN

We don't always expect those who make the most noise to do the greatest things. Mary Sue may appear quiet and reserved, but she is full of fun and eager to do more than her share in anything for the good of her friends, her Class, or her Alma Mater. The world wants more people like Mary Sue.

EUGENE FIELD GABBARD

ARNETT, TENNESSEE

ATHENIAN

Gene comes from the state famous for its fine horses and beautiful women, but we are convinced that it also produces men of exceptional ability. Whether Gene decides to charm radio audiences with his guitar or to go in for big league baseball, we know he will be a credit to his state and to his college.

EARL ROSCOE KELLER

MARYVILLE, TENNESSEE

ATHENIAN

In his Freshman year, Earl won a medal for an essay on "The Value of Truth," so we must be very truthful in what we say about him. But that doesn't worry us, because we can, with perfect truth, say that Earl is one of the most valued members of our Class. He possesses a brilliant intellect and is perfectly willing to do all he can for his Class and Alma Mater. Luck to you, Earl.

Winner of Rush Strong Medal (1).

MARTHA CLEO WHEELER

CHAPEL HILL, TENNESSEE

THETA EPSILON

Cleo believes in the old adage, "Laugh and the world laughs with you, weep and you weep alone." And Cleo always did like lots of company. She is just naturally good-natured. Full of fun and ready of wit. "Once a friend, always a friend," is true of her. She has quite an enviable record in basketball, too, and her scholastic ability is well known.

GWENDOLYN ELLEN MANN

BUDORD, GEORGIA

THETA EPSILON

Gwendolyn left us for one term and spent her Junior year at George Washington University, but she soon discovered that there was no school like Maryville, so she came back to join our class again. We were awfully glad to have her back too, for she is the kind of girl that leaves a good record wherever she goes.

RUTH TAYLOR

OLIVER SPRINGS, TENNESSEE

BAINONIAN

If you hear a light, quick step followed by a cheerful giggle you'll know that's Ruth. And if she starts talking to you in Spanish, don't be surprised for Ruth is one of our Spanish sharks. And that is very fitting since she has the dark good looks of the Spanish. We do not know what Ruth plans to do after leaving college, but whatever it is, and wherever it is, she is sure to make lots of friends and be a success.

JAMES HOWARD PANNELL
BAKERSVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA
ATHENIAN

It has long been proven that "still water runs deep" and so although everytime Pannell crosses the campus everyone within a radius of half a mile is not immediately aware of the fact, we feel that he is getting much out of his college course that many who treat it in a more superficial way never get. There is a love of fun behind those black eyes that makes his acquaintance well worth cultivating and conversation with him a pleasure.

BEATRICE ALMA GREEN
WAVERLY, KENTUCKY
BAINONIAN

What's in a name? You can't tell people by their names. Beatrice has proved that beyond a doubt, for a glance at her scholastic record shows her excellence as a student. Her pleasant disposition has gained many friends for her at Maryville. Beatrice, our best wishes go with you always.

JOSEPH BENJAMIN PRINCE

CALHOUN, TENNESSEE

ATHENIAN

As for Ben—he goes peacefully on his way, winning all the tennis games he plays—and he sure swings a mean racquet. When he isn't bringing glory to his Alma Mater through the tennis team, he is in the chemistry lab breaking test tubes and discovering new compounds. Who knows Ben knows a friend, and he is well known.

MARY ELIZABETH WOODARD

WEST LIBERTY, OHIO

BAINONIAN

We hope to be able to soon hear Mary Lib's voice coming to us over the radio, for those of us who have been entertained by that voice here in M. C. will miss it when we leave. But music is not her only talent and chief among them is her talent for making people love her. Then, too, she is a blonde and that accounts for the masculine half of her admirers. But whatever the secret of her attractiveness she deserves the best that life can offer and our parting wish is "May the gods of mirth and gladness go with you."

NELLIE MARGARET CALDWELL
LOUISVILLE, TENNESSEE
THETA EPSILON

Nellie possesses unusual dramatic ability as we have seen from her work in Mid-Winters and other dramatic productions. She puts herself so wholeheartedly into her work that it could not be otherwise than successful. On the stage of life we know that she will play her part equally well. She has a smile and a disposition that we are not likely to forget.

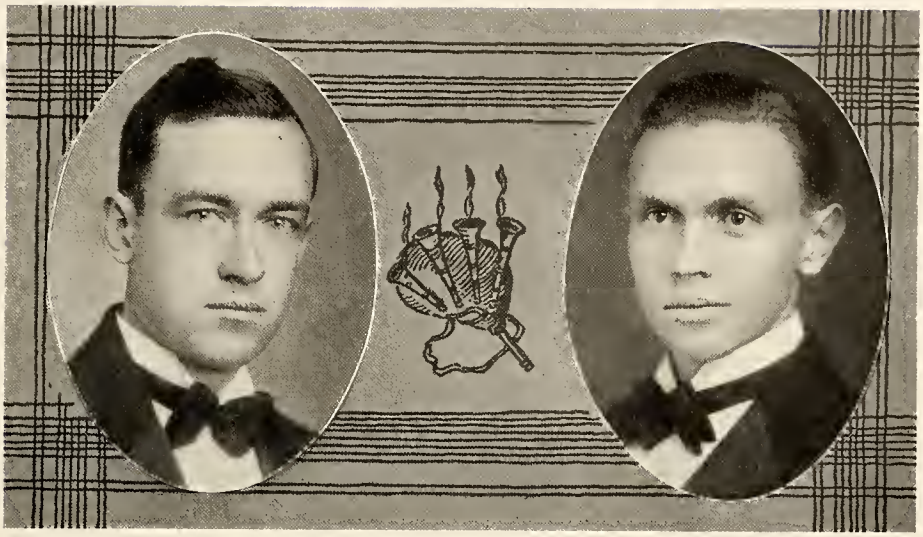
RUTH NAOMI BAILEY
JONESBORO, TENNESSEE
BAINONIAN

Ruth is the girl who always has a good word for everybody. This added to her many other good qualities has made her many friends on the Hill. She is one of our Smith-Hughes girls and an able worker in the Home Ec Club. Ruth is always ready and willing to do anything we ask.

Home Economics Club (3, 4), Editor (4).



BURL MARTIN CARPENTER
MARYVILLE, TENNESSEE
ATHENIAN

We don't know whether Burl can use a hammer and saw to advantage or not but we do know that he can and does use all his talents to help make the Class of '29 a success. In fact, he is the living example of all a dignified Senior ought to be—serious at the right time, and jolly at the right time. Juniors, take notice.

JOHN RALPH LAWSON
MARYVILLE, TENNESSEE
ATHENIAN

Ralph is the kind of fellow you just can't help liking. If native ability and hard work will win the victor's crown we are sure Ralph will receive his—but we suppose it will be set with opera stars instead of the ordinary variety, because Ralph is another of our musical members and has done good work with the Glee Singers for four years.

WALTER HARLON MATTHEWS

CLARKSVILLE, MISSOURI

ALPHA SIGMA

Walter has decided artistic ability. We predict that before many years have passed he will be one of the leading cartoonists of the country. Perhaps the next Presidential campaign will show up his talents, or maybe he will decide to be a second Bud Fisher or Rube Goldberg. But his cartoons will never be appreciated by anyone so much as by those of us who have enjoyed his chalk talks here on the Hill. The Dixie Vagabonds, will miss him next year, too.

JODIE SNEED

MANCHESTER, TENNESSEE

THETA EPSILON

If it is true that "the way to a man's heart is through his stomach" Jodie will soon have the entire masculine population at her feet. For she certainly is a wonder when it comes to preparing culinary triumphs. The Seniors at least can testify to that. And we feel sure that Jodie's meals will always be served with an accompanying friendly word or laugh—for Jodie is like that.

WILLIAM HAROLD BIRD

MARYVILLE, TENNESSEE

ALPHA SIGMA

Harold is the tall, good-looking athlete. Ever since he entered the Freshman class he has helped the Orange and Garnet to bring home many victories. He is equally indispensable on the football field and on the basketball court. However, with all his athletic ability, he is not one-sided, but has earned the reputation of being one of Maryville's most popular men.

ELIZABETH MAE MURPHY

MIAMI, FLORIDA

BAINONIAN

Elizabeth is our "sunshine girl." She comes from the sunny state of Florida and always brings enough of it back with her to last through Maryville's rainiest of days. She has that indefinable and indescribable something called charm, which, coupled with a magnetic personality, and more brains than any one person has any business with, makes her one of the most popular students on the Hill with Seniors, Juniors, Sophs, Freshmen, and Faculty alike.

ELIZABETH HYDER GREER

MARYVILLE, TENNESSEE

THETA EPSILON

Elizabeth says "A bird in the hand is worth two in the bush." So she has left the ranks of the moonshiners to enter the cohorts of those who no longer enjoy single blessedness. We are glad, however, that this did not prevent her finishing her college course for we would have missed her cheery smiles and words. We expect her to shine in the home as she has done in school.

MARY LOUISA RODGERS

CLEVELAND, TENNESSEE

THETA EPSILON

If there were such things as brown diamonds we should say that that is what Mary Louisa's eyes most resemble, for they are always sparkling with merriment as though she had just heard a good joke and was enjoying it a while herself before passing it on. But this is not her only claim to distinction. She is one of the few girls on the Hill taking a Pre-Med course and we wish her the greatest success in her chosen profession.

ALGIE SUTTON

WOODRUFF, SOUTH CAROLINA

ATHENIAN

The most outstanding thing about Algie is his sense of humor. He always knows a good story or is willing to listen to one. This, of course insures popularity for him wherever he goes. Another thing we like about Algie is his willingness to help out, in whatever we want done. We are sure he will have no trouble finding his place in the world.

Pi Kappa Delta (3, 4); Athenian Mid-Winter (4).

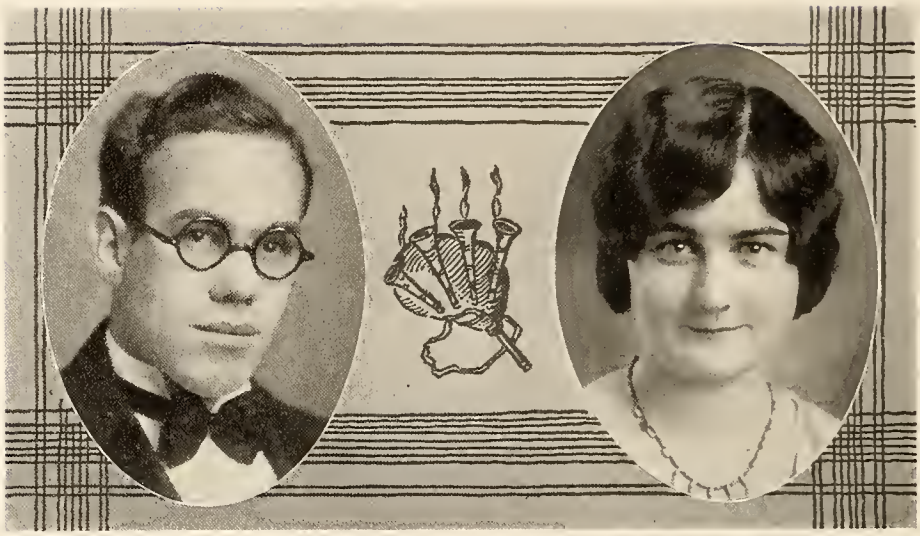
WILLIAM STEVE STEELE

CENTERVILLE, ALABAMA

ATHENIAN

The proverb "true as steel" certainly applies to William for he is true to the standards of his class and school and to his own ideals. Such loyalty cannot remain unrewarded, and life must hold rich gifts in store for one who has high ambitions and who strives so hard to attain them. Good luck go with you, Bill.

Alabama Club (1, 2, 3, 4), Vice-President (3); Chemistry Club (2, 3, 4).



REGINALD VOORHEES

BRIDGEPORT, CONNECTICUT

ALPHA SIGMA

We are grateful to Connecticut for sending Reggie to Tennessee and to Maryville. He is that little fellow behind the glasses who has a smile and a good word for everybody. He has all the originality we could expect from a Yankee and that says a lot. It was his originality that planned our socials for the past two years. Yes, he has a life work. Reggie, we expect big things from you in the field of surgery.

ANNA LOU MILLER

ATHENS, TENNESSEE

THETA EPSILON

Anna Lou is another member of our class who has been with us for only two years but who has made up for that by putting all her energies into making people sit up and take notice when the Class of '29 is mentioned. She has a smile that will unlock the door to any future she may choose and will win friends for her everywhere, just as it has in Maryville.

WILLIAM MITCHELL CRAWFORD, JR.
FAYETTEVILLE, TENNESSEE
ALPHA SIGMA

Billy is one of the best all-round men on the campus. He has been a leader in the Y. M. C. A., in Alpha Sigma, in his class, and in the sacred institution of moonshining. Last, but by no means least, Billy is one of the biggest reasons why Coach and Maryville believe our football team to be Tennessee's finest.

KENNETH JOSEPH SOUKUP
CLEVELAND, OHIO

Kenneth hails from the Buckeye State and like the rest of the Boosters from that state has proved a valuable addition to our student body. He is also one of the "Biology Bugs" and we take off our hats in admiration for one who can so completely master that subject as to be chosen as an assistant. Luck to you, Ken.

University of Dubuque (1); Biology Assistant (3, 4); Spanish Club Treasurer (4).

SARAH LUCILE MOORE

ALCOA, TENNESSEE

BAINONIAN

Sarah is one of the most brilliant of our number. We are not sure whether we shall next meet her name attached to one of next year's "six best sellers" or to a volume of poetry, or in some of the leading magazines; but there is no doubt of the fact that she can write. Her work as Editor-in-Chief of the Echo proved that, as well as her stories in "Writers' Work Shop." And who could ever forget the charming little princess in "Granstark?" Or the haughty society girl in "The Thirteenth Chair?"

JOHN HENRY WIENAND, JR.

MOBILE, ALABAMA

ALPHA SIGMA

John has been one of the most outstanding men in the Class of '29 ever since it came into being four years ago. He is a good executive and has always carried any project to a successful conclusion. Along with his other activities, he has found time to make himself one of our most brilliant students. His motto seems to be, "C is a gentleman's grade, but who wants to be a gentleman?"

EDWARD OVERTON DEHAVEN

OSBORN, OHIO

ATHENIAN

Eddie, the man with that mysterious middle initial. Few know what that O. stands for, but we believe it stands for his motto, "Onward." He is the kind of a man who will live up to that kind of motto. The best awaits you, Ed.

ELEANOR MARY BIRD

TRYON, NORTH CAROLINA

BAINONIAN

If you see about a hundred pounds of queenly dignity, topped with red hair, and eyes with a far-away look in them, you'll know that's Peggy. Moreover, her graciousness is enhanced by an unquenchable sense of humor and spirit of fun. Her supply of ideas for entertaining the campus and dormitory is apparently inexhaustible. There is no one quite like Peggy and she will be genuinely missed after next June.

DAVID SAMUEL MARSTON

LOVELAND, OHIO

ATHENIAN

David has missed one of the joys (or trials) of being a Senior—namely, Theism. Of course, he proved to us how smart he is by taking it as a Junior. This is not the only proof we have of his intellectual capacity, however, for he more than holds his own in any class. And he's a Chemistry assistant, too!

Athenian Critic (4); Chilhowean Staff (3); Glee Singers (4); Chemistry Assistant (2, 3, 4); Treasurer Chemistry Club (2).

RUGH CRAWFORD McCLELLAND

ELDERTON, PENNSYLVANIA

ALPHA SIGMA

Some are friends for a reason,
Some are friends for a time,
Some are friends for a season,
But Mac is a friend for all time.

"Mac" is always looking for some one to be a friend to. And he never has to look far, for his attractive personality will always win him many friends wherever he goes.

EDNA JEWELL McCAMY

CRANDALL, GEORGIA

BAINONIAN

Edna is quiet and unassuming, but to those who know her she is pure gold. She is majoring in English and that proves she is not afraid of work. She can always be depended on in whatever she undertakes. "To know her is to love her."

Georgia Club (1, 2, 3, 4).

VINNY LEAL SMITHSON

NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE

THETA EPSILON

Vinny Leal is another of our Sunny Tennesseans. And she certainly lives up to that name for her sunny smile and happy disposition have helped to brighten many of the well-known Maryville rainy days. To prove that she is not afraid of work, we need only say that she took her major in English, and, judging from her record, she made a success of it; just as we know she is going to make a success of everything else.

Middle Tennessee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); Spanish Club (3, 4); Maryville College Players (4); Theta Epsilon Mid-Winter (4).

RUTH LENORE LOCKMILLER

RICEVILLE, TENNESSEE

BAINONIAN

Ruth is a girl of high ideals and possesses that determination necessary to achieve great things. She seems to think that "actions speak louder than words." And her actions say that she is all for the Class of '29. She can talk well, though, when occasion demands, for she is a very good student in expression.

Bainonian Mid-Winter (4); Spanish Club (4).

FRONIE OLEVIA FRENCH

HARLAN, KENTUCKY

THETA EPSILON

Fronie always has the right word for the right occasion. We were convinced at first of her intelligence by the high grade she made on the psychological test, and further acquaintance with her has only served to strengthen the conviction. We are glad she discovered her mistake in time and spent her last two years in M. C.

EVELYN RODDY SHERARD

OOLTEWAH, TENNESSEE

THETA EPSILON

A combination of gay comradeship, ability to accomplish wonders when it comes to work, and just the right amount of dignity; add to that a charming smile that is guaranteed to drive away the blues just any old time and you have a pretty good picture of Evelyn. She's the girl that everybody likes. We will remember her for her work in dramatics too, both in Mid-Winters and as a member of the College Players.

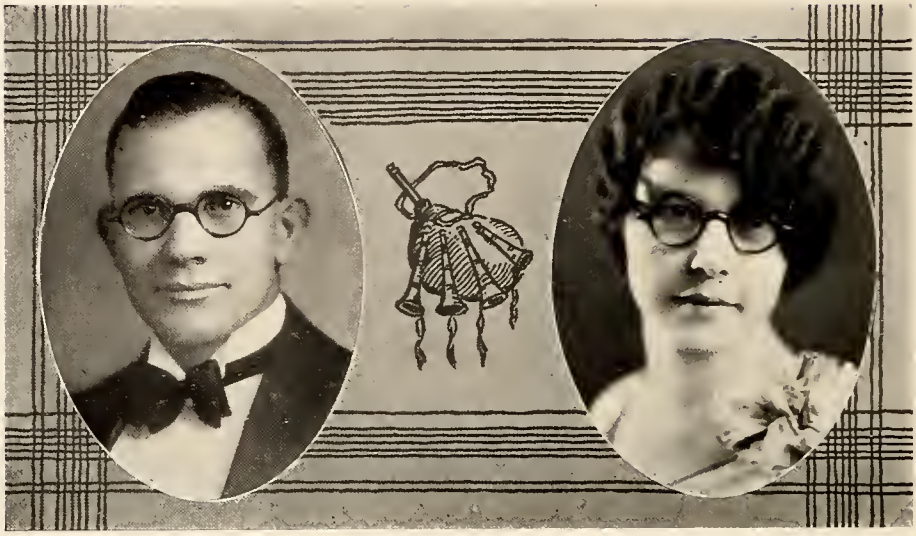
Theta Epsilon Treasurer (3), Vice-President (4), President (4); Girls' Athletics, 500 points (3); Alpha Sigma Mid-Winter (3); Theta Epsilon Mid-Winter (4); Maryville College Players (4); Graduate in Expression (3); Vice-President Chattanooga Club (4); Theta Alpha Phi (4).

LUTIE ELIZABETH TOOLE

MARYVILLE, TENNESSEE

THETA EPSILON

Whether it's in the gym or in the kitchen, Lutie is right there with the goods. We are sorry the girls discontinued intercollegiate sports because we don't get to see Lutie breaking up our opponents' nicest plays any more. She played a good game for M. C. for two years though. To look at her is enough to know that she is an optimist for she is always smiling. She is going to leave a place that will be hard to fill.



HAROLD FOSTER HOLMAN

COLORADO SPRINGS, COLORADO

ATHENIAN

We shall remember Harold chiefly for his work with the Glee Club. That is by no means the only line he excels in, however. We always appreciate the members of our class who sing, for what would we do without them to fill in dull moments at a Senior party, or lead the Seniors in the old pep song, and just cheer us up generally? And Harold is one of those generous souls who are willing to sing when called on.

PHYLLIS RUTH PETERSON

DAY BOOK, NORTH CAROLINA

BAINONIAN

Phyllis is the young lady with the calm, unruffled look. But there's a reason: there always is. In these days when most of the co-eds are struggling with "long bobs," Phyllis goes smilingly on her way. She has no worries in that direction for she has kept the long flowing locks that we are now vainly striving for. Phyllis has dignity and a love of fun combined in just the right proportion to make her liked by everybody.

ATHENIAN

Russ came to us four years ago as one who was destined to be ahead of his fellows. He displayed unusual ability in accumulating quality credits and has never slackened his pace in that direction. And Greek! Socrates would marvel at the ease and accuracy with which he handles that most expressive of languages. We prophesy for him the chair of Greek Exegesis.

"The good stars met in your horoscope,
And made you of spirit, fire, and dew."

Everybody knows Little Mary and loves her. With a delightful southern inability to pronounce an "r," a spirit of friendliness and helpfulness, an irresistible manner, together with an intangible something in her personality, Mary has found a warm and lasting place in all our hearts.

LLOYD JOHNSON
END

It might have come from frequent fistic frays with pickaninnies in his early youth—in all events it's true that "Red" Johnson is supremely tough, supremely plucky. It would be life to any team to see that short, stubby, poker-faced son-of-a-gun in action. "Red" is a Spartan, for he is gritty to the core of him.

MAURICE CARPER
GUARD

"Bub's" chief characteristic is his brawn, that is to say, his chief physical characteristic. There is another salient point about "Judge," as he is sometimes affectionately dubbed, which is his inability to maintain his pants up to his midriff. They somehow have a tendency to slide off. But perhaps we've committed a faux pas—maybe we should not have mentioned it!

CLIFFORD OVERLY TACKLE

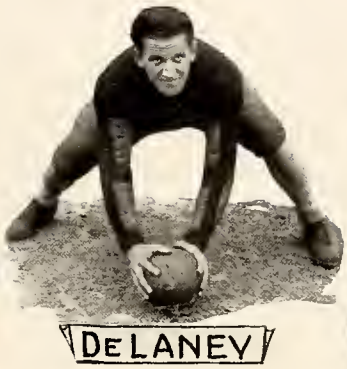
Afar off in the mountains of West Virginia they produce them roly-poly, rotund, and jovial. It seems that we were deceived, though. Clifford really can play the game and play it well, even if Coach has ofttimes been compelled to administer with a resounding thwack the board to his rearmost quarters. Results? Yes, plenty!

WILLIAM HOPE
TACKLE

From the Hoosier state comes Bill—nevertheless, he's a valuable prop to the Highlander forewall. Bill dwelt a great deal in the land of Nod his first year. Eventually he awoke, however, and many an opposing tackle has had occasion to feel faint on looking into the grim-set, freckled contours of friend Bill's topography. Fortune favors us in that Billiam's fear-inspiring visage will again grace Maryville's row of pigskin pulchritude.



CARL STORY
GUARD

Carl to the Highlanders was like two twentifications—a mighty bulwark in times of distress. When he hit a line it collapsed, and what's more it stayed collapsed. No doubt he missed his cue occasionally, but that, however, was because of grogginess resulting from his terrific onslaughts. He labored like a Trojan for the success of his team, did Carl, and that's a tribute to any gridster.

MERLE DELANEY
CENTER AND HALFBACK

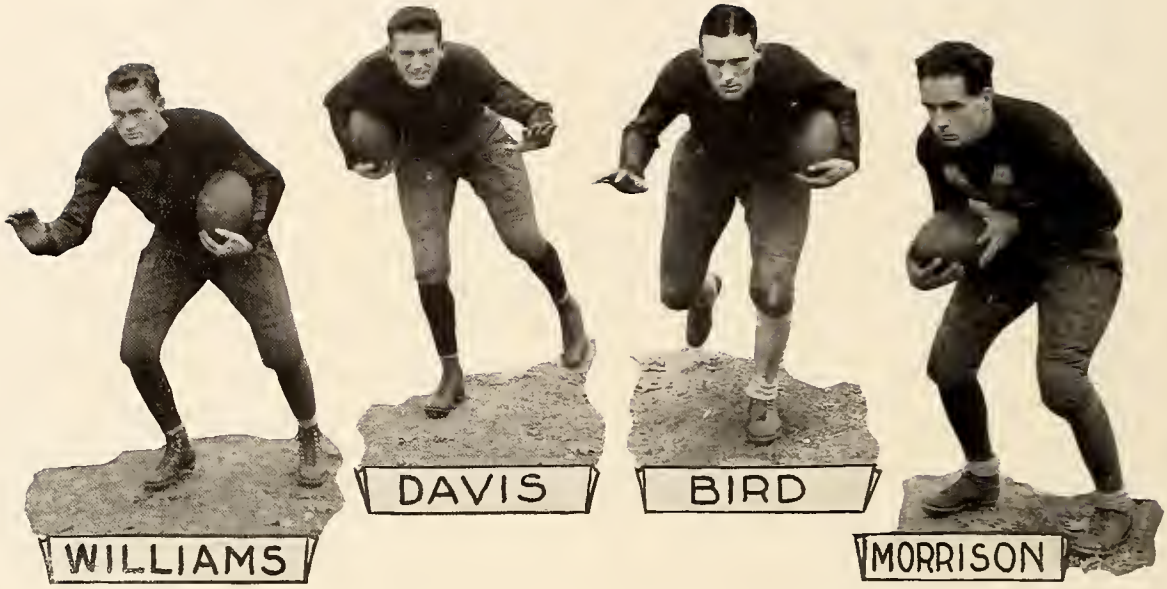
Army men sometimes make good—such as Merle. He occupied the position of utility man on the team but performed most brilliantly at the pivot. Where was the melee was Merle—in the very middle of it. Despite his military background and life of connubial bliss, Merle has delivered the goods.

LOWELL McDONALD
GUARD

Lowell claims to be a denizen of Harrisburg, Illinois, though his intimate acquaintances insist he's civilized because he passed Systematic Discourse. However that may be, Lowell is such a mighty bulwark to the Scottie's destiny that he has been chosen next year's captain. And the officials thought enough of him to place him as guard in the All Smoky Mountain Conference eleven.

RALPH CHERRY
END

Ralph makes a fine-appearing end. His lankiness reduces the distance to negotiate before stopping the man with the ball and it provides an effectual block for facilitating his mates' offensive. Nor is his altitude a deficiency when it's a matter of snaring forward heaves. He's ever alert and vigilant—is Ralph.



HAYES WILLIAMS
HALFBACK

It's a beautiful sight to see Hayes run. In fact, his nether limbs move with such lightning-like rapidity that they look like palpitating pistons. He is, indeed, such a Mercury-heeled fellow that the sobriquet "Flash" has been applied to him.

J. D. DAVIS
QUARTERBACK

J. D.'s chief asset is his bold, ringing voice—a great asset in calling signals. There's a confidence and a dominance in it that bewilders antagonists—there's power and there's strength in it. J. D. seals his valiant record with the honor of having captained a team notable for its ability to come back and upset the dope.

HAROLD BIRD
HALFBACK AND FULLBACK

"Tillie" reminds one very much of a noble Arabian steed. His movements, both pelvic and pedal, on the gridiron are of a kind to be likened unto a canter when the sod beneath the feet is dry, and like unto a gallop when the sod dissolves into slimy ooze. But whether he canters or gallops, Harold, with his dexterous hip-work has always been a potent threat to Orange and Garnet foes.

IRA MORRISON
FULLBACK

"Doc" is the hard-hitting line-plunger with the shock of magnificent auburn hair. His team mates have often marvelled that he should maintain this abundance of hirsute appendage in such immaculate repair. Football is only a sideline with "Doc" — he knows chemistry, he knows he's going to be a missionary, and he knows the virtue of constancy to one undying love!

WALTER HEADRICK
GUARD

Walt's most dominant and outstanding characteristic is his persistence. Three years he toiled in vain, but the fourth attempt gained him his coveted award. It was the final game of the season that brought victory—Walt never let up against the terrific assault of Georgetown.

WM. CRAWFORD
HALFBACK

Billy's ability on the cinder path stood him in good stead on the gridiron and the imp of the devil that dwells forever in his heart made him a tough customer, indeed. Every good foothall player should have a strain of wickedness in his blood—and Billy's got it.

GEORGE TAYLOR
END

"Youth" has been ever a steady and dependable end. He has none of your brilliant, scintillating gridsters that flash and glitter across the field of combat—rather he played the game as it sbould be played—as one of the cogs in a powerful machine.

ROBERT WATKINS
CENTER

His nickname belies his capacity for they call Robert "Farmer." He has got an agrarian temperament and agricultural habits, but he's from North Carolina, which excuses him. Yes, though admittedly bucolic, "Farmer" as a center has been transcendently superior, truly superb. And it's a terrible disaster to make him angry—he's built according to mighty substantial specifications.

DON WILSON TACKLE

Where was the thick of the fray there was Don, his great frame clasped securely around whomisoever had dared to advance with the pigskin. Many's the poor backfield man that's groaned with pain and growled with rage when this giant from Iowa hit him. Don should cause quite a few ferocious sinners to tremble when he ascends the pulpit.

Football Squad

It can be truly said that the Highlanders, under the direction of the best Coach in the South, have had a very successful season. The first two games resulted in defeat for Maryville, but the third encounter started an unbroken series of victories for seven games.

Maryville is justly proud of every member of her '28 football squad, but we will remember especially those six men who have so worthily played their last game for the Orange and Garnet: Davis, Bird, Williams, Crawford, Taylor and Headrick.

1928 football is now a thing of the past, but the memory of clean playing and well-earned victories will remain forever.

Basketball Squad

The 1929 Maryville Cagesters have nobly upheld and strengthened their reputation as superior basketeers. Their good work was especially evidenced in the final game at Kingsport where they were defeated by Emory and Henry in the Smoky Mountain Tournament by only one point. Splendid team-work was seen in the spectacular comeback they made in the second half of the game when they tied an 18-4 score. Below are the scores for the season:

Maryville	24	Alumni	31
Maryville	32	Knoxville Y. M. C. A.	23

CAPTAIN LEWIS REED

Guard

They raise fighters on the Great Lakes, and Louie lives in Cleveland; which is another way of saying that he has amply demonstrated an ability for clean, fast, and spirited play. His captaincy is sufficient tribute to his merit.

J. D. DAVIS

Guard

J. D. played through the 1929 season as he never played before—a continual block to foemen. He could always outgress the aggressor. His splendid performances at Kingsport placed him on the All-Smoky Conference five.

HAROLD BIRD

Forward

"Tillie" was a boon in moments of distress. He had a disconcerting capacity for pivoting which could throw utter bewilderment into the ranks of the enemy. When he once got the feel of the basket he became a veritable machine of destruction.

KEMP DAVIS

Forward

Kemp has attributes not at all unlike a tropical hurricane. When he started he started so fast that the tremendous force thereof broke through all detaining efforts of his opponents. His dexterous flings have won many a game.

MERLE DeLANEY

Forward

He's a brawny young man is Merle, with a flair for the Hohenzollern style of hair cut. Merle has a penchant for snatching the ball from his opponents and converting it into a Maryville goal.

RALPH WADDELL

Center

Ralph, variously described as "Suitcase" and "Precious" (this last because of his endearing charms) is a basketball-shooting demon. He operated so brilliantly at Kingsport that the judges could not but declare him All-Smoky center.

EVERETTE VINCENT

Guard

"Diz" possesses in an unusual degree the gift of celerity of movement. So rapidly he propelled his nether limbs that his man could never escape him. He should aid the team immeasurably next year.

JOHN STONE WHITE

His relation to the great John Stone has produced high expectations of him. So far Whitie has delivered the goods remarkably well. The augury points to continued and further success.

The coming of spring and the love of that fascinating sport, baseball, caused thirty-five of Maryville's noble sons to express their covetousness of a position on the Highlander Nine. From these thirty-five men the best college baseball team in the State was selected.

Of the seventeen games played, fifteen were won and only two lost. Not once was Maryville defeated on the home diamond. Many of the victories were due to Gabbard's excellent hurling. Maryville is especially proud of John Stone, leader of the hitters, who made such an enviable record as to assure him a position with the Detroit Tigers.

The record below shows why the Maryville Nine were acclaimed state champions.

The Orange and Garnet track men of 1928 were the best yet produced. Only one loss is recorded among the season's encounters, and that was to Tennessee, the first meet of the season. The Highlanders ran neck and neck with the Volunteers until the last event, the relay race. The final heat was lost, Maryville being bested by a scant two-point margin.

Following are the scores for the four meets:

Maryville	55	University of Tennessee	57
Maryville	65½	Sewanee	55½
Maryville	91½	Emory and Henry	39½
Maryville	81½	University of Chattanooga	30½

Alpha Sigma

Alpha Sigma of the season '28-'29 has lived up to the high standards set in former years. This year's Society has had more than its share of Maryville's musical talent. Alpha Sigs made up the majority of the Varsity Debate Team. The weekly programs, from the beginning of the year, reflected the fine cooperation between members and officers of the Society.

Our Mid-Winter, "Little Old New York," was distinguished by real dramatic work on the part of Nellie Caldwell and Chilton Bowles. In Theta's Mid-Winter, "Craig's Wife," the leads were admirably taken by Frank Baker and Evelyn Sherard.

In other activities Alpha Sigma had the Editor of the annual and the Captain of the basketball team. An Alpha Sigma, John Wienand, carried away the extemporaneous speaking contest. Truly we were well represented in all activities on the Hill.

To those who leave us in June we wish to say, "We thank you for all you have done for Alpha Sigma. We know that your Society will occupy a real place in the memories of your Alma Mater."

Theta Epsilon

In 1894 Theta Epsilon was founded. Since then it has been steadily growing and this year of 1928-29 has been most successful. This may be attributed to the unique opening week of activities for the new girls. The closing event, the Diamond Night Club, was most entertaining and enlightening.

We feel quite proud of our talent as displayed in the Mid-Winter, "Craig's Wife." It was the Pulitzer prize play in 1925, and was, indeed, something of an event in Theta's year.

May the girls who remain to carry on the work maintain the high standards and ideals of friendship established by former members. It is with reluctance that the Senior girls leave the friends they have made by associations in our Society.

Athenian Literary Society

The history of the Athenian Literary Society for the year 1928-29 has been filled with its usual number of successes and achievements. There will always be happy memories connected with the watermelon disappearing act staged around the big bonfire in the college woods. This initiated an important year for the Athenian.

The officers and members of Athenian were very successful in showing Maryville to the new students, and we are certain that members of the Freshman Class will always be grateful to the Athenians for the help rendered them.

The programs for the year have been most varied, and their success has been attested by the large attendance at each of them. The first programs were taken up in receiving new members into the Society.

Who does not remember the spectacle of fun and college life presented in "The Poor Nut." This Athenian Mid-Winter was well received, and the Society owes a debt of gratitude and respect to the untiring efforts of the actors, the manager and props.

The Athenians have excelled this year in all the activities of the school. May their individual successes always be as great as that of the Society.

BAIN NIAN

Bainonian Literary Society

Bainonian, the oldest and largest girls' Literary Society on the Hill, was organized in 1875. During all these years she has splendidly lived up to her name, which means Traveler, as is evidenced by the progress she has made. This year she has been particularly successful, for from the opening week, which went over with a boom, each succeeding week has brought fresh interest and enthusiasm, to say nothing of laurels. Considerably over a hundred Maryville girls are proud of the fact that they belong to such a live and "up and going" society. The programs this year have been quite varied, but all of them have been instructive as well as entertaining.

A silver loving cup was given Bainonian for the best stunt put on at the 1928 Circus last spring.

One of Bainonian's members brought her society special honor by winning the extemporaneous speaking contest (Miss Petitt).

With the aid of our brother society, Athenian, Bainonian's Mid-Winter was ably and magnificently presented.

"Bainonian, Bainonian
Deep graven on each heart,
We'll be found unwavering, true
When we from college part."

"LITTLE OLD NEW YORK"

Alpha Sigma Midwinter

Theta Alpha Phi

In accordance with its yearly custom initiated in the spring of '28 the Theta Alpha Phi Dramatic Fraternity has elected to present the Theta Alpha Phi loving cup to the Bainonian Literary Society, having decided that their play, "Graustark," was the best in points of composition, presentation, and rendition. Alpha Sigma with its play, "So This is London," was the recipient of the honor last year.

February Meetings

Dr. Vander Meulen

Rev. Stringham

Maryville College was extremely fortunate in having as leader of her fifty-third series of February Meetings, Dr. John M. Vander Meulen, President of Louisville Theological Seminary. The hearts and admiration of all were won through his thorough understanding of student problems, his aid in solving them, and his sympathetic advice. His mind and sincere addresses inspired almost six hundred young people to renew their Christian vows. The influence of his personality will be felt throughout the world as Maryville students go out to assume the responsibilities of life.

Reverend Sidney Stringham, whom we all know and love, gave generously for the eighth consecutive year, of his talents and services to help forward the cause of Christ on College Hill.

The meetings were, as they have been ever since they were instituted fifty-three years ago, a wonderful success and an untold blessing to hundreds of people.

"I was glad when they said unto me, Come let us go into the house of the Lord."

Y. M. C. A.

The "Y" started its year last fall with a conference at Kinzel Springs on the edge of the Smokies. There the plans for the year's activities were drawn up and completed.

Each one of the officers and cabinet has realized his responsibility and carried out his work whole-heartedly.

The year's program has included the three phases of work—physical, mental, and spiritual development. Two fellowship banquets with the University of Tennessee, a Life-Work Conference, Pageants, a Barn Warming, the Lyceum, and Athletic Contests were sponsored by the "Y."

The regular weekly meetings gave every man a chance to take part, revealing much talent. The outside speakers who came to us were of the best. The Association helped to keep the February Meetings up to standard.

Its purpose is to show Christianity to the world through individual lives; and to lead men into a closer walk with God and a fuller knowledge of Jesus Christ.

Y. W. C. A.

From the day the homesick Freshman enters Maryville until the erudite Senior receives her diploma every girl is receiving benefit from some phase of the Y. W. The Big Sister movement, Nu Gamma Groups, and the Y. W. reception are of immeasurable value in making the new girls love their college home. On Thanksgiving day the Y. M. and Y. W. put on the Barnwarming and in the spring the two associations give us the Circus. The May-Day celebration is also directed by the Y. W. Perhaps the greatest contribution of the "Y" associations is the excellent Lyceum program. All girls' athletics are sponsored by the Y. W. No girl can ever forget the times when the "Y" store has warded off otherwise certain starvation. The proceeds from this profitable enterprise go toward sending delegates to the Blue Ridge Conference in June of every year.

However, we find that all this is merely one phase in all the broad activities of the Y. W. C. A. It is doing marvelous work in enriching our spiritual lives, through the medium of the Lifework Conference in March.

The Y. W. is especially interested in world fellowship. Sometimes it is hard to remember that the Young Women's Christian Association is a world-wide organization and that our own particular group is really a very small part of the whole.

Altogether the Y. W. C. A. is trying to fill its members with a feeling of the beauty in life, and to make them want to live up to their purpose, "To live unreservedly Jesus' law of love in every relationship. and so to know God."

A Word of Appreciation

We have endeavored to make the advertising section as interesting as possible this year in an attempt to show the business men that we appreciate the way they have supported "The Chilhowean." The men who advertise in the following pages are loyal to everything Maryville College attempts, and are deserving of our patronage.

We take this opportunity of urging the students to treat these advertising friends as they have treated us.
